SONGBIRDS...live™ 2010 launches at Cascadia Hotel in June with Jamaican, NIQUET GOLDSON

All SONGBIRDS...live fans and invitees,

Due to an overwhelming demand, and more importantly, the limitations of the original space, the producer of SONGBIRDS...live has to relocate the launch of the 2010 edition of this series to the Sky View Lounge, Cascadia Hotel, 67 Ariapita Road, St. Anns. PLEASE NOTE that the date and time remain the same: Thursday, June 3, 2010. Showtime is 6:00 pm.

Additionally, Production One Ltd. films all of its production, and at the request of the videographer, the filming of this season's premiere episode of the series of concert would be better served at this location. We look forward to your continued support of this production and series, and hope that this location change would enhance your experience at the event.

Jamaican SONGBIRD, Niquet Goldson launches the 2010 edition of SONGBIRDS...live™, the concert series produced by Production One Ltd., featuring new Caribbean female vocalists at the Sky View Lounge, Cascadia Hotel, on Thursday 03, June from 6:00 pm. Production One Ltd., recently off the commercially successful Jazz Artists on the Greens in March, continues in 2010 this performance showcase for the female voice that began last year. SONGBIRDS...live™ features, from June to December on the first Wednesday of the month (with the exception of June), some of the most notable upcoming and unheralded female voices in contemporary music in Trinidad and Tobago with an ear turned to Jazz and World Music. The musical range, from world jazz to neo-soul to quiet storm, places SONGBIRDS...live™ in a position far separate from the plethora of jazz gigs popping up around the city of Port of Spain. These smaller productions serve as a platform for the recording of the singers and their performances.

Currently in the process of graduating from the University of the West Indies, Mount Hope, Trinidad, with her degree in Veterinary Medicine, Niquet Goldson will debut the series on June 3 before returning to her native Jamaica to pursue both her academic profession and her first love, music. The captivating smile along with the warm and inviting personality of Niquet is only but a precursor to the experience of this emerging starlet performing centre stage. The pretty, petit Jamaican born singer who wears a beautiful crown of dreadlocks has been singing for the greater part of her life. Now at the age of 24, she has successfully made the seamless transition from background harmony vocalist to become a sensational solo singer in her own right. Her musical inspirations include Beres Hammond, Ella Fitzgerald, Queen Ifrika, Whitney Houston, India Arie, and Taurus Riley.

Heralding from a family of six in the parish of St. Mary, Jamaica, Niquet was raised by her two parents as the youngest of their four offspring. “Growing up in a house with three older brothers, some might consider me to have been the little princess. But as with everyone, life still did have its fair share of ups and downs,” clarifies Niquet. “My family was very conservative, and being raised in the church, my earliest experiences singing were strictly gospel music. It wasn’t until in my late teenage years and early twenties that I began singing harmonies for popular reggae artists such as Tony Rebel, Abijah, Richie Spice, and Andrew Tosh among others.”

Niquet attended Wolmer’s High School for Girls in Kingston, and it was whilst there that she was able to pursue voice training at the acclaimed Edna Manley College of the Visual and Performing Arts. During these years although studying classical voice, she was able to appear both in studio and on various stages with gospel artistes such as Prodigal Son, Judy Mowatt, and Carlene Davis to name a few.

Highlights of Niquet’s career include singing on the internationally acclaimed Reggae Sumfest stage with some of the previously mentioned artists, as well singing with artists in Trinidad and Tobago whilst attending to her tertiary education studies in Trinidad and Tobago. Her work in Trinidad includes background harmony vocals on stage and in studio for icons such as Brother Resistance, Ataklan, Ziggy Rankin, Levi Myaz, and Umi Marcano amongst others. She is currently working on original music and performs both as a solo singer and harmony vocalist. One can be sure to expect phenomenal things from this package of voice, beauty, intelligence and charming personality.
